

IMPORTANT VOLUNTARY PRODUCT RECALL INFORMATION

*One product recalled for impermissible levels of lead
November 2006 magnet recall expanded*

DISCONTINUE USE OF TOYS IMMEDIATELY

Thank you for responding to the voluntary product recall by Mattel® (NZ).

Please note, the affected "CARS" die-cast vehicle assortment line was manufactured between March 2007 and July 2007. The toy in question is a green army vehicle known as "Sarge". The affected car may have been sold alone or as part of an assortment containing Sarge cars.

Surface paints on the car may contain increased levels of lead, which if ingested, may have health ramifications.

The recalled car is marked on the bottom with '7EA'.

Sarge Cars or Assortments containing Sarge Cars have the following Model Numbers on the package: H6414, M1253 or L6294. The affected products are marked "China".

There have been no reports of injuries involving the affected product in New Zealand or overseas.

Additionally, Mattel® is voluntarily recalling magnetic toys manufactured between January 2002 and January 31, 2007 including certain dolls, figures, play sets and accessories that may release small, powerful magnets.

The recall expands upon Mattel®'s voluntary recall of eight toys in November 2006 and is based on a thorough internal review of all Mattel® brands. Mattel® is exercising caution and has expanded the list of recalled magnetic toys due to potential safety risks associated with toys that might contain loose magnets.

Beginning in January 2007, Mattel® implemented enhanced magnet retention systems in its toys across all brands.

Consumers should immediately take the recalled toys away from children.

Please review the following images and descriptions affected by these recalls, indicating the total number of toys you own in the space next to the image.
